

CORE

the part of something that is central to its existence or character

CONFIDENCE

the feeling or belief that one can have faith in or rely on someone or something

WHY

Core & Confidence are the 2 words that appropriately address a strategic, planned and financially invested approach that we can now call our Core Product Range. In a global market where we are facing ongoing supply issues the development of our core range makes perfect business sense...Effectively taking our better selling styles / colours and investing deeper into inventory on the ground to support better stock continuity....It's really that simple.

WHEN

Like all good things sometimes it takes time, but having planned well in advance for this and our new Core Range inventory is either in stock now, or under manufacture pending arrival through 2022.

We understand that it takes time to truly establish what part of your product range truly sets you apart from the others, those items that become an "easy sell" because they sing our Mantra so true: Style...Quality...Innovation

We will work tirelessly to have the Core range at your disposal to sell every day/ week/ and month of every year, with CONFIDENCE.

OUR COMMITMENT

In our business as an ex-stock supplier we have invested like we have never invested before in STOCK...By investing heavily and consistently into our Core Range we give CONFIDENCE OF SUPPLY to those that are on this ride with us, which is YOU our customer.
